

TMRL Attitude Syllabus

A. Description

This course involves a careful examination how our beliefs control our lives. It focuses on discovering the natural truth that we were born with to overcome the limitations and the discontent in our lives. Emphases are on beliefs, truth, human behavior, the conscious and the subconscious mind, B-Code™, Breakout™. When you understand where beliefs come from and what they do to your life, then use the Breakout™ sessions to find the truth about these beliefs and eliminate them, you can lead the life you want.

B. Organization

This is an on-line course that progressively takes you through each chapter. A learning guide is available to further assist in the explanation of the information with exercises to increase understanding. Eight Breakouts™ complete the course.

C. Objectives

1. To understand that we control and create everything that happens in our lives.
2. To recognize the truth by describing everyday example of each of the four principles:
 - A. You create both successes and failures in your life.
 - B. You cannot stop yourself from creating.
 - C. You can choose to stop creating failure.
 - D. You can choose to create the material equivalent of your desires.
3. To identify ways our life experiences affect our beliefs and behaviors.
4. To recognize and give examples of how differences in people affect a person's belief.
5. To correlate how our belief system affects the results in our lives and to distinguish the difference between reacting and thinking.
6. To understand how the three areas of your life are controlled by beliefs.
7. To realize and give examples to show that beliefs are at the core of your problems.
8. To understand that we exchange the truth of the universe for beliefs. Our lies become our truth and the truth of the universe becomes our lies.
9. To differentiate the difference between how the conscious and subconscious minds work.
10. To identify the parts of the B-Code™ and their functions.
11. To explain how the areas of the B-Code™ affect your emotional system and produces behavior.
12. To understand what led to the creation of the B-Code™ and Breakout™.
13. To summarize how energy affects our physical and emotional wants.
14. To explain how belief prevents the outcomes we desire.
15. To associate the following truths with each corresponding foundational Breakouts™.
 - A. Make the mystery of the universe work for you.
 - B. The universe is positive and trustworthy.

- C. You are ok. Your behavior will not be perfect, but you are ok. You are not your behavior.
 - D. You have unlimited power to create whatever you choose.
 - E. All beliefs are lies.
 - F. Learn from your experiences. Ask yourself, “What do I believe that created this in my life?” Rid yourself of beliefs and uncover the truth in each experience.
 - G. No one can consciously betray you. It is only another person’s reaction.
 - H. You are responsible for yourself and any truthful obligations.
16. To verbally describe and validate how the entire B-code™ works in preparation for debriefing for Breakout™.
 17. To identify the sequential steps to debrief in order to facilitate a proper debriefing session during personal Breakouts™.
